A frame house on Punchbowl street, from which two cases of cholera were taken some days since, was burned yesterday by order of the Board of Health. When asked why it was not done before, a local wag replied that great bodies moved slowly, and he supposed their minds moved in the same manner.

The morning paper says Portuguese residents at Punahou want to know what has become of a petition sent the Minister of Interior June, 1894, asking that water be furnished them. The answer is probably the same as that given by the Minister to Representative McBryde when he wanted to know why the new pumping station was not built by contract.

THE POLICE COURT.

JACK HALL GETS FINED ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS.

Judge Wilcox Dispenses Justice Occasionally Tempered With Mercy.

Judge Wilcox has forsaken his accustomed haunts for a few days and his familiar presence no longer haunts the sacred precincts of the Supreme Court, nor does it hover around the steam-laden atmosphere of the poi factory at Palama. On the contrary it makes itself both seen, heard and felt while it occupies temporarily the woolstack vacated by Judge Perry while the latter is thinking of entering a fine for contempt of court against the gripper, an attack of which confines the learned judge to his home and makes him inspect himself twice daily and tell the Sanitary Committee in writing how he feels.

Judge Wilcox has an imposing appearance on the bench, which seems to have a terrifying influence on gamblers, especially of the Chinese persuasion. Seven of these Celestials have pleaded guilty of the heinous offense and the Court has shown them no fear or favor. It was simply a case of $10 each and costs before the defendants could leave the police station and get into a fresh game and endeavor to make enough to even up on their fines.

Judge Wilcox is not a first-class Spanish scholar like the regular occupant of the bench, and had no use for cases in which Portuguese are concerned, especially when the defendants are accused of libelling each other in a language that can be twisted around to mean whatever the other fellow wants it to when he is abusing you verbally or through the columns of a newspaper. Consequently he has denied himself the pleasure of hearing the libel against Messrs. Vivas and Ferreira and will leave it to the tender mercies of Judge Perry.

Ah Man and Ah Cheong have an insatiable longing to catch crabs. They have always done so, and will always do so when the Board of Health is not watching them, unless Judge Wilcox raises their fines hereafter. They were let off at a dollar apiece, which was cheap enough considering the size of the crabs unusually caught in this harbor.

The regulations of the Board of Health forbid anyone to enter the valleys without a special permit from the Board of Health. Ah Chun went to Pauoa and J. K. Nahole to Nuuanu without these permits and were hauled in and brought before the judgment seat this morning. They both pleaded guilty and the Pauoa valley man was fined $1 and costs and the

That Tired Feeling

Is a dangerous condition directly due to depleted or impure blood. It should not be allowed to continue, as in its debility the system is especially liable to serious attacks of illness. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the remedy for such a condition, and also for that weakness which prevails at the change of season, climate or life.

Nuuanu valley man $5 and costs. Why it costs more to go up one valley than another is one of those things which Lord Dunsyre used to say "no feller can find out." Perhaps His Honor took into consideration the aristocratic nature of the soil in Nuuanu Valley and the size of the defendant's foot-prints. But it is all right anyhow, the Board of Health must be respected on Smith's Island anyhow.

Tai Sung sells decayed beef to indigent Hawaiians, well knowing that he would not eat it himself. It took just $11.20 off his profits to enable him to make satisfactory arrangements with the Court regarding his departure from the station house, not counting the damage he must have sustained from loss of time and absence from such a lucrative business.

Jack Hall, who is said to run an institution known as the Bird Cage, was fined $100 and costs for furnishing gin to his patrons.
